PROFILE OF PRINCIPAL LECTURERS

Mr Yap Kok Wah

Yap Kok Wah, FCCA (Fellowship of Chartered Certified Accountants) has been lecturing for more than 25 years in areas of accounting and finance. Besides Malaysia, Yap also lectures in Vietnam, Hong Kong, China and Singapore. He has been teaching Financial Reporting ever since 1983, and various reputable lecturers in the ACCA programme were his students. Apart from that, he is also the founder and principal of two colleges in Johor Bahru. Yap, so humorous that every class is just like a show, also has a special technique for handling computational and consolidation questions in the Accounting papers. Not forgetting, Accounting standards are developing so rapidly but Yap always devotes substantial time to update his lecture notes. It's disastrous to learn out-of-date accounting standards, but Yap ensures you don't. Yap is also well known amongst his students to provide extra tutorial classes. He knows it very well; practice is the only way to assure your passing. Avoid uncertainties in exams, learn with Yap and accrue for success from now.

Mr Sam Wong

Sam is a member of the ACCA and has tutored and lectured in CAT and ACCA courses since 2010. He is able to make the teaching memorable, fun and easy to understand for the students. He was previously attached to an audit firm for 3 years before venturing into lecturing. Sam is committed and dedicated to his work and has helped many students to achieve success in their studies. Join him in F7 as he will meticulously guide you to tackle difficult past year's questions.

He is also involved in corporate training programmes for commercial companies including Multinationals like British American Tobaccos as well as public sectors such as ILKAP (Institut Latihan Kehakiman dan Perundangan). He is currently a marker for an internationally recognised professional accountancy exam. Low has previously trained with a reputable medium size public accounting firm. Low himself made remarkable achievement in his studies. He achieved excellent results for his ACCA studies being 6-times prize winners for his ACCA papers (ACCA Paper 5(IT), 6(Audit), 10(Accounting), 11(Tax Planning) and Paper 12(Management Strategy)) and finally was awarded the Top Affiliate for Dec 2000 scoring the highest total cumulative marks for his ACCA final module. A highly responsible and dedicated lecturer, he definitely has proven track records with his students by producing prizewinners in their professional studies.
